

Attilio Soriano is a lawyer admitted to practice law before the Higher Courts. His main role carries out in the Legal Criminal Field, and particularly in the enterprise one. In the extrajudicial field he takes care of the drafting and implementation of the management and control organisational models, by also providing out-of-Court advice to companies (Criminal Law of Prevention), also on occasion of extraordinary operations. In the judicial sphere he is qualified in offences against Public Administration, such as IT, financial, bankruptcy, corporate and opinion affairs. He attended the Nunziatella Military School (NA). After graduating in Law, he took a master's degree in Criminal Law and Procedure at the University "La Sapienza", based in Rome. Since September 2021, he is Chairman of the Supervisory Board of CY4GATE S.p.a.